

The Third Tohoku Conference on Global Japanese Studies

Change in Japan's "Long 1960s": Social Movements and Transformation

2020.
12.12-13 SAT SUN Live Online

Registration

<https://forms.gle/G4bY6BWp8VGuAuMy8>

* In the event that the global pandemic has ceased to be a concern at the time of the conference, plans may be revised to include some degree of non-virtual gatherings.

Conference Language

The Morning and Afternoon Sessions will be conducted in Japanese. Japanese Studies group sessions will be in English.

Contact

GPJS Office
gpjs@grp.tohoku.ac.jp

Symposium

— Change in Japan's "Long 1960s": Social Movements and Transformations —

Speakers

Prof. Emeritus ARAKAWA Shōji (National Museum of Japanese History)
A Reconsideration of 'The Age of Eruption of Countless Questions'

Prof. TAKAOKA Hiroyuki (Kwansei Gakuin University)
Social Change in Japan during the High Growth Period

Prof. Emeritus YUI Daizaburō (University of Tokyo)
Social Movements in the "Long 1960s" in World History:
The Vietnam Anti-War Movement

Organizing Committee

ADACHI Hiroaki (Chair), CRAIG Christopher, DELANEY Alyne, IMOTO Yoshihiro, KABASHIMA Hiroshi, KIYAMA Sachiko, OKA Hiroki, ONO Naoyuki, ŌNO Kōji, TAKAKURA Hiroki, YOKOMIZO Hiroshi, YUKI Takenobu of Tohoku University

Graduate School of Arts and Letters, Tohoku University
27-1 Kawauchi, Aoba-ku, Sendai, Miyagi
980-8576, Japan